Sparkling with north sun, single-level space and classic style, this 3 bedroom home is the hidden gem you've been hoping to find! Wrapped by approx 351sqm garden space beyond a long private drive, this glittering home is ready to be treasured for its large lounge and light-filled kitchen-casual area around a north-facing entertainers' deck... and its quiet bedroom wing nestled in a freshly polished setting. A showpiece of classic style with an invaluable neutral finish for the quality appliance kitchen and clever two-way bathroom, this sparkling single-level is ready to reward with an ensuite-access master, a handy separate WC, and a full family-sized laundry. Polished up with plush new carpets, fresh paintwork and well-fitted storage (including robes and linen-press), this centrally heated and cooled home shines outdoors too with plentiful parking (or playspace) on the long driveway, wraparound gardens including a lush front lawn, and an easy-access garage. Set in an invaluable location, this hidden treasure is rich in lifestyle rewards too. Young families will see the value in Highland Reserve as a bonus backyard. Growing kids will appreciate a quick easy walk to Sandringham College. Downsizers will treasure the bus to Sandringham and Southland at the end of the street ...and investors will find their value in this Sandringham border position!
