Tucked behind a white picket fence, you will meander through the garden, past the fig tree, and immediately be met with the charm and uniqueness this property has to offer. At the front the cottage veranda is the perfect spot to take in the peaceful neighbourhood and stunning sunsets. Inside there are three bedrooms with original wide timber floorboards, high ceilings, under floor insulation and original lining boards on the walls. The bathroom has been fully updated and renovated with two entry points. The internal laundry has also been remodelled. The lounge room boasts the original double brick fireplace making this the heart and soul of the home. With space to create the kitchen you are dreaming of or enjoy the simplicity of living with the existing, both options lend to ample outcomes to present your personal style. A rear patio and lock up garage with carport are tucked behind the cottage with privacy in mind. The entire yard is fully fenced. At the rear of the block is a secluded, large self-contained studio that is council approved. The space is well-appointed and separately fully fenced to the rest of the property creating a world of possibilities - larger families, multi-generational living. Solar panels on the studio roof are adding to the investment. Reverse cycle air-conditioning and wood burners are in both dwellings. Set on a large 1285sqm parcel, in a sought-after position in Uralla, your own haven awaits.
