At the end of a quiet cul-de-sac between Hansen Reserve and Cruickshank Park this quaint period home offers two bedrooms, spacious central living with a separate open plan meals to the kitchen with great bench and cupboard space, stainless steel appliances, gas cook top and electric oven, and dishwasher. Updated bathroom with shower over the bath, external laundry with a second toilet. All the charm of the yesteryear that you would expect, timber floorboards, high ceilings, charming lead light windows. split system heating and cooling. Excellent outdoor area with a northerly aspect, for those that love a vegie garden, there are two planter boxes ready and waiting for you to start planting, and great car access for off street parking via Exhibition St. AAA location, whether its schools, hospitals, Uni's or the CBD, this property is going to make for easy commuting to everything.
