With a twist of urban style and a taste of downtown cool, this light-lavished lifestyle apartment boasts a prime position just off the main strip of Highett. A home that would not feel out of place in vibrant inner-city postcodes, this is an exciting chance to lap up a low maintenance lifestyle in a booming Bayside locale. One of just three top-quality residences in a boutique build with no Body Corporate, the single-level home is accessible and stylish broadening the target demographic to a range of buyers. Introduced by a glossy entrance, the floorplan flows to an open plan living and dining zone alongside a just-updated kitchen flaunting chic cabinetry and quality stainless steel appliances. Outside, the generous alfresco area features an elevated deck and an undercover patio which can be used for entertaining or off-street parking for up-to two cars thanks to roller door access to the laneway. Both of the bedrooms are true doubles that offer ample built-in wardrobes as well as fresh breezes from alfresco access, they share a sparkling fully-tiled bathroom, while concluding the package are split system heating/cooling and generous storage both inside & out. Just around the corner from restaurants, bars & shops and a heartbeat to the station or highway for a CBD commute, this central locale is also within moments of the supermarket and also a quick train or car ride to Southland.
