This luxurious generously sized two bedroom apartment has room to move. The external balcony flows onto the living area, allowing residents to enjoy open plan living at its best. Great wardrobe space in the bedroom and a separate laundry nook will help keep the apartment neat, while the timber floor boards and upgraded parquet flooring is sophistication at its best. Inspired by the North Shore's lush woodlands, the neutral tones and raw materials of Mirabell reflect the beauty outside. Open plan living both accentuates views and amplifies space for you to enjoy with family and friends. Two spacious bedrooms with plenty of storage and have been adorned with new sheer and blackout curtains that provide privacy and comfort. The layout and orientation of this apartment harness the best natural light throughout the day. As you venture inside, a calming and comfortable picturesque view is framed by floor to ceiling doors that give way to your private balcony, a brilliant extension for entertaining. With impeccable craftsmanship of Parquet timber floors throughout both bedrooms, your private haven mirrors the simplicity of nature. Ducted air conditioning is included throughout.
