A completely unique offering, this superb apartment combines a clever New York style loft design with a superb north facing alfresco courtyard and a peaceful setting walking distance to a host of outstanding amenities. Positioned within the iconic conversion of C1923 The Schoolhouse, it's beautifully private with light-drenched interiors and an inspiring design that provides a sense of space not often found in one bedroom apartments. Living spaces spill to the soothing serenity of garden areas and it enjoys near level private access from the street. From its outstanding setting, everything is at its fingertips. Walk to St Leonards shopping and rail, bus services, cute Naremburn village and the vibrant hub of Crows Nest.
