Welcome to this delightful 3-bedroom fully detached duplex nestled at 2/10 Kildare Drive, Banora Point. A great opportunity for first-time buyers, investors, and growing families alike. Flaunting a spacious open-plan living space, cosy front verandah and the privacy of an undercover rear patio, perfect for entertaining or quiet relaxation. The master suite is generously proportioned with its own ensuite whilst all bedrooms are fitted with built-in wardrobes, simplifying storage solutions. The main bathroom caters to all needs, featuring both a shower and bath, tailored for the hustle of morning routines or a tranquil evening soak. Parking is a breeze, with a single lock-up garage complemented by an additional car space. Being the elevated rear duplex, privacy and security are enhanced, along with the benefit of a fully fenced yard, making it a secure playground for pets or children. Located in a prime spot, this residence is a stone's throw from local shopping centres, schools, and public transport links. Furthermore, Coolangatta Beach is merely a 15-minute journey, offering a coastal escape on your doorstep. For the astute first home buyer, this property presents an exceptional opportunity, with potential savings of approximately $27,000 on the NSW stamp duty redemption scheme—a financial incentive that sweetens the deal. And for the savvy investor, this duplex promises a combination of low-maintenance living with high desirability for tenants. With all these features and more, 2/10 Kildare Drive is a prospect that merits serious consideration. Seize the chance to step onto the property ladder or expand your investment portfolio. We look forward to meeting you at the first open home. For more information please contact Peter Walmsley on 0412 763 000.
