Set on the sought after northern ridges of Lismore Heights, this terrific townhouse would be ideal for first home buyers, professional couples or the savvy investor. With stunning views to the Nightcap Ranges and capturing the cooling afternoon breeze, the clever design takes full advantage of the aspect. The entry level of the property consists of a split level design, featuring the double lock up garage with internal access, spacious kitchen with ample storage and bench space. The dining area is separate and simply step down to the generous air conditioned lounge room and beyond to the covered patio and private rear courtyard. Upstairs boasts three spacious bedrooms, the massive main bedroom is air conditioned, is completed with a walk-in robe and en-suite but the real showpiece is the private balcony, presenting you with almost 180 degrees of breathtaking views over the surrounding rural landscape and further to the ranges. A rare treat in a popular, tightly held complex - don't miss your opportunity to secure this spacious, stylish home.
