The crown jewel of the iconic Alma Road Mansion (c.1882) complex, this ground floor apartment combines original character with modern convenience. Situated opposite Alma Park, just a short stroll from Carlisle Street. Public transport is just moments away and will take you to the Chapel Street precinct, known for its shopping, bars and restaurants. The apartment offers private off street parking behind secure remote gates after which a private outdoor entertaining area welcomes you into the home. High ceilings, polished timber floors and plantation shutters feature throughout. Two bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation, both offering built in wardrobes. The main bedroom features French doors for flexible access and both are serviced by a sleek modern bathroom with double shower and Calacatta marble accents. A spacious central living/dining space is adorned with the original 18th century fireplace and ornate mirror to match. The modern and functional kitchen features Calacatta marble benchtops, premium Italian-made ILVE freestanding cooktop and oven - all of which enjoy a Northerly view of the signature St Kilda palm trees. Further enhanced by heating, cooling and a separate laundry, this is a truly a unique opportunity to live within a one-of-a-kind, exquisite mansion conversion. Will suit single professional or couple. Would you like to Inspect this property?
