Tucked away neatly at the rear of just 3, this unit offers impressive privacy to complement its low maintenance style. Modern, fresh and well maintained, it features high ceilings, ducted heating, a generous open living area with split system air conditioner and a stylish kitchen with stone benches and stainless appliances including an electric oven, gas cook top and dishwasher. There are 2 robed bedrooms as well as a family bathroom offering ensuite style access from the second bedroom. Outside there's a lovely garden courtyard with deck and a single garage with remote door and room in front for another car. With buses in the street and Pinks Reserve across the road, the home also within minutes of Gladesville Primary School and both Churinga Village and Kilsyth shopping centres. Please note: The initial rental agreement for this property will be a 15 month term as this is our Office's new standard lease term for all new agreements unless otherwise negotiated.
