The well-built weatherboard home features the above-floor area, which includes 3 bedrooms and 1 bathroom, with the main living room boasting a modern open plan kitchen with a large island benchtop, plenty of cabinet space and a gas fired burner stovetop with a portable electric oven. There is a front patio and a decent-sized back deck for entertaining, excellent for resting with a drink while watching the kids/pets play in the completely fenced backyard. Each of the three large bedrooms has carpet, fans, and built-ins. Well-located and well-served by public transportation, this one is a steal. with its proximity to quality private and public schools, as well as the QEII Hospital, Orange Grove Road Shopping Centre, Coopers Plains Train Station, Griffith University, and Sunnybank's heart. A nearby bus stop is also only a few minutes' walk away, with direct lines to Westfield Garden City and Brisbane's CBD. This exceptional location, where demand is rapidly increasing, is unbeatable. Furniture is for illustration only (as most furniture is already removed) please treat this as unfurnished. The tenant is required to share half of the internet bill and 100% of the water consumption. There is no stove but a portable stove at the property provided by the owner for your cooking needs.
