Situated in a coveted location within one of the Eastern Shore's most popular suburbs, this residence provides comfort and a contemporary lifestyle. Being one of just two on the allotment this villa is set back from the street enjoying privacy and seclusion. Through extensive glazing plenty of natural light and warmth floods the home, allowing for comfortable living throughout. The family lounge flows through to the dining area offering vibrant floorboard and views of the river, city, and mountain, before arriving at the kitchen. The culinary space boasts quality appliances and an abundance of storage within white cabinetry. This villa also enjoys the added benefit of a sunroom located off the dedicated dining area that provides a space to relax and best enjoy the views. Two bedrooms make up comfortable accommodation each offering built in robes. The spacious central bathroom servicing the home contains shower, built in bath, vanity with storage with a separate toilet nearby. The laundry offers ample room for appliances and additional storage with direct outdoor access. The yard is fully landscaped featuring lawn space and established gardens filled with florals. A single carport provides sheltered parking for one vehicle. Filled with comfort, style and natural light, this conveniently positioned villa takes full advantage of nearby schools, shops, beaches, and parks, and everything else the in-demand suburb has to offer.
