Perfectly positioned midway between Glen Huntly & Carnegie's hubs and offering a light and bright setting for easy living, this updated apartment provides young buyers and investors with a great springboard into a highly desired locale. Fresh and well-maintained, the accommodation is ready to live in & love, while as an investment it is champing at the bit to start earning you an income. Featuring a comfortable living and dining zone that enjoys a leafy elevated outlook, there is also a very generous kitchen boasting plenty of cupboard and preparation space along with a stainless steel oven and space for casual meals. The bedroom is a peaceful double which benefits from fitted robes and split system heating/cooling, it is serviced by a renovated bathroom showcasing frameless glass and a stylish hung vanity. Including a Euro laundry and on-site parking space, this brilliant base is a walk to Carnegie & Glen Huntly stations giving you access to the Pakenham, Cranbourne and Frankston lines, while trams are only metres away. A choice of cafes and shopping options as well as Monash University Caulfield are also within easy reach.
