Nestled in the leafy surrounds of Victoria Street, this superb apartment promises a vibrant lifestyle with easy access to Potts Point hospitality venues, Kings Cross Station and the CBD. This end of the street has a European feel, with friendly local cafes that spill out onto the footpath and a minimal amount of cars passing by. This residence is quietly tucked away from the street in the middle of Idalia House - a small building of 10 residences preserving lovely period details in the common areas. An attractive city pad or investment, it presents ample living space with an ornate fireplace, plus an eat-in newly-renovated kitchen with a gas stove. The kitchen also has laundry facilities, while the bedroom has an ensuite bathroom. This building is situated for easy access to shops, restaurants and take-away food outlets, as well as the colour and energy of Darlinghurst nightlife. Locals love the walk-everywhere lifestyle, with the Botanical Gardens and the upmarket neighbourhoods of Woolloomooloo and Rushcutters Bay also set within footfall. - 1 bed | 1 bath- Easy access via only a small set of stairs- Building hallway has period-style cornices- Peaceful setting in the middle of the building- Defined by high ceilings and timber floors- Timber sash windows & plantation shutters- Gas-appointed newly-renovated kitchen with a modern look- Bedroom complemented by a neat ensuite- Ms. G's & The Butler located on the street- Set only 280m from Kings Cross Station- Harris Farm 200m, Woolworths Metro 400m- Explore Potts Point cafes & cocktail bars- Pet friendly apartment block (STCA)- Eligible for City of Sydney street parking permit
