Embraced by a very generous wrap-around garden introducing a courtyard stretching the length of the property, this stylish and spacious single-level home, set to the rear of the block of only two, will hold equal appeal for empty nesters, first-home buyers and investors. Awash with natural light and finished with wide board engineered timber floors the expansive open-plan living-meals integrates a spotless well laid out kitchen with plenty of bench spaces and storage solutions. Complementing the family-sized living area are three well-proportioned bedrooms served by the central bathroom. Extras including solar power (8 panels), single car garage, ducted heating and cooling and ceiling fans complete an enticing package. Creating the ideal opportunity for a relaxed indoor-outdoor lifestyle with a rear yard large enough for the kids and their pets, it enjoys all the advantages of a location a short walk to the bus and primary school, an easy stroll to Ruthven Station and just minutes from the heart of Reservoir.
