Located in a stunning boutique development of only a handful of city-style apartments, this versatile two-level property offers an unparalleled lifestyle with a location that is next to none. With its luminous open-plan living area seamlessly merging to an expansive balcony, this apartment is an entertainer's paradise. Boasting two well-appointed spacious bedrooms, each accompanied by their own private ensuites, plus a kitchen embellished with luxurious granite countertops. Equipped with amenities such as a recently fitted split system air conditioning, intercom entry, secure parking, a Euro laundry, complete with high quality engineered timber flooring, this apartment leaves no luxury unturned. Positioned mere steps from Highett Train Station, Holmesglen, and just moments away from Southland. This offering presents a rare opportunity for those seeking refined city-style living or a promising investment venture that simply cannot be overlooked.
