A rare opening that boasts its own street frontage, garden views and accommodation for four cars, this two bedroom ground floor apartment enjoys versatile outdoor spaces and excellent proximity to High Street's fabulous array of shopping, cafes and public transport. Brightly refreshed with two entrances, one via the private front garden, this solid brick offering is everything astute starters and investors look for plus more. Dimensions are generous, living and dining oversee the front garden, the eat-in kitchen is well-ordered with gas cooking, and spacious bedrooms, each with robes flanking a retro dresser, share a stylish central bathroom that includes laundry facilities. Split system heating/cooling, great internal storage plus handy storage shed, loads of outdoor space and excellent off-street parking add to the appeal of an easy lifestyle that's further enhanced by a fabulous position near Thornbury Station, Penders Park, Psarakos Market and so much more.
