This lovely, well maintained unit is situated in a tightly held location in Park St and is positioned within walking distance to cafes, boutique shops, stunning beach and the ferry to Melbourne. This well presented home features an easy living floorplan comprising two generous bedrooms with robes, central bathroom and a functional modern kitchen with quality appliances. The lounge area enjoys natural light and flows out to a lovely courtyard that enjoys a northwest orientation, with glimpses of the bay and is perfect for the keen gardener or summer barbeques. The property enjoys privacy, low maintenance landscaped gardens, a second courtyard with garage access, split system heating and cooling plus secure single garage accommodation. This superb property represents excellent value for those wanting to downsize or secure a solid investment.
