Offering flat walking access into all the best that Airlie Beach has to offer, and recently updated with exceptional finishes and furnishings, this gorgeous one bed apartment on Waterson Way in the heart of the Whitsundays is an exceptional investment or home for any buyer looking for a seaside property. Featuring a spacious open plan living-dining, and lovely kitchen with full sized oven and cook top, pantry and island bar. This all flows seamlessly to the elevated, covered alfresco where you can relax, enjoy brekky or a drink, and spy coral sea glimpses and the bustling township of Airlie Beach. The master bedroom is a private retreat complete with large, mirrored wardrobe and sliding door access to the adjacent balcony. The main bath is complete with all you need to freshen up and relax, with washing facilities tucked away in the European laundry. Airlie Central Apartments on Waterson Way includes a sparkling pool and beautifully maintained facilities for all to enjoy. Parking and storage allocated for owners and guests are also included in the complex. A myriad of management options are available for this property to maximise both your income and your enjoyment. Fully airconditioned and fully furnished with fresh updates to the finishes and fittings, this one bedder has it all for your next investment or home. Enquire today for more info on the low body corps and to book your private inspection.
