This stunning split-level beachside home, located just 100 meters walking distance from the famous Bondi Beach and Hall St eateries, has been architecturally designed with no expense spared while maintaining a coastal vibe. Set just a stone's throw away from the sands of Bondi Beach, and situated within a quiet block, this home is split between two levels and effortlessly flows from indoor living to outdoor entertaining. The courtyard features a beautiful bamboo lined garden with a BBQ area and a private Jacuzzi spa, as well as an outdoor shower. With ambient interiors, the open-plan living area seamlessly blends with the black marble kitchen and the dining area, and is flooded with natural light, thanks to the high ceilings and skylights. The kitchen is fully equipped with modern appliances and features a large black marble island bench that also doubles as a breakfast bar with seating, making it a perfect spot for a quick bite or catching up on work.
