This spacious and light filled ground floor apartment set amongst treelined environs boasts two expansive private courtyards within a highly sought, inner urban locale just steps from the Yarra River trail. Floor to ceiling windows and a generous living and dining zone creates an inviting and contemporary space that opens to a large, high walled courtyard welcoming north facing light, perfect for alfresco entertaining. Comprising two sizeable bedrooms with mirrored built in robes, a separate study accesses a second courtyard offering an ideal work from home haven or spot to unwind, while a modern central bathroom features laundry facilities and a bath. A well appointed kitchen with stone benchtops and stainless steel appliances offers cleverly integrated storage. With three off street car spots, a private entrance and split system heating/cooling, this apartment showcases true lifestyle convenience at your fingertips, on the doorstep of city bound trams, walking distance to Hawthorn station, Glenferrie station, parks and Glenferrie Road cafes, restaurants, supermarkets and shops.
