This delightful double-storey townhouse with intricate brick and lacework is a brilliant acquisition in the best location. Securing prime position a short stroll from Ferguson Street, The Strand, Nelson Place and Williamstown Station, and the many superb cafes, restaurants, and shopping, owners will enjoy marvelous beach access and a manageable lifestyle. The entry level of this inviting home focuses on providing an open plan flow and a seamless courtyard connection. The lounge with easy-care tile flooring and large windows leads to the dining area and kitchen with glass splashback, gas cooktop, and wall oven. From here, enjoy a meal out on the paved patio or relaxing on the fenced lawn area with dappled sun and shade from the mature trees. Upstairs, comfortable accommodation is supplied by 2 spacious bedrooms with built-in robes and timber floors. The primary bedroom boasts its own private balcony that soaks up outlooks of the lovely, leafy streetscape. The shared bathroom is stylish and bright with subway tiles and a deep soaking shower/tub. With additional highlights including a generous ground floor laundry with guest WC, under-stair storage, extra off-street parking, and access to the Williamstown Primary School and Bayside P-12 College zone, this timeless home has an impressive array of features on offer.
