"Where else could you be on the main street in Cowes but be so secluded and private? No body corporate fee either!" Welcome to your slice of coastal paradise in the heart of Cowes! Situated just a seashell's throw away from the vibrant pulse of Cowes, this three-bedroom townhouse is your ticket to seaside serenity and convenience rolled into one. With shops, cafes, Cowes Primary School, and the picturesque foreshore and jetty all within the distance of a skipping rock, every day feels like a holiday here. Step inside and let the coastal charm wash over you as you're greeted by the luxurious master bedroom with ensuite, beckoning you to relax and unwind. Venture further into the open-plan kitchen, living, and dining area - the perfect hub for entertaining friends and family or simply enjoying a quiet evening in. Downstairs, discover the convenience of a powder room and laundry, making everyday living a breeze. And when you ascend the stairs, prepare to be delighted by a second living area, offering even more space to spread out and enjoy life's little pleasures. Plus, tucked away off this retreat, you'll find the balance of large bedrooms and the main bathroom - ensuring comfort and convenience are never far away. But wait, there's more! Step outside into your own secluded oasis complete with a charming pergola, fruit trees, veggie patches, private hedges and cobblestoned pathways perfect for lazy Sunday brunches or evening barbecues under the stars. Experience the delight of a 6.6kW solar panel system gracing this property - an ideal fusion of sustainability and savings on your power bills. Whether you're seeking a savvy investment opportunity, a flexible Airbnb, a dreamy holiday escape, or the ultimate owner-occupier delight, this townhouse ticks all the boxes. Don't miss out on the chance to make every day feel like a beach day - seize your slice of the Island paradise today! Offers before auction are welcomed and will be considered.
