This meticulously renovated apartment effortlessly marries boutique charm with contemporary design, offering a private park-side residence that unveils captivating leafy outlooks. Embracing a modern sleek aesthetic, the apartment exudes a calming ambiance with its natural color palette and meticulous attention to detail. With a northern orientation, this apartment is flooded with sunlight, featuring windows on three sides and a balcony where you can relish enchanting sunsets over the park. The fusion of streamlined minimalism and high-quality finishes harmonizes seamlessly with the mid-century architecture of the boutique block. Meticulously reconstructed from a shell, this two-bedroom apartment boasts only one shared rear laundry wall, offering a sense of privacy and exclusivity. It is one of just nine residences in this tightly held block and includes the convenience of a generous Lock-Up Garage. Nestled in the coveted enclave of Randwick North, you'll enjoy a leisurely stroll down Hooper Lane to Queens Park. The vibrant Frenchmans Road village is a mere 500 meters away, providing you with an array of amenities. Plus, you're well within reach of the serene waters of Clovelly and the lively surf at Bronte Beach.
