Nestled in this prestigious tree-lined street, a picket fence, ornamental pear trees and a charming verandah set a scene of idyllic country life. 'Birdie' is a quaint 2-bedroom cottage, full of character embodying coziness and ease, right in the heart of Daylesford. Striking a balance between comfort and low-maintenance living, it's an ideal first home, downsizer, or as the perfect 'home away from home' and short-term holiday rental offering a tranquil escape from city life. Greeted by an inviting interior, the layout is open-plan with a free-flowing living, dining and kitchen area enjoying a wealth of natural light and the capacity to arrange the space to suit your lifestyle. Servicing the two robed bedrooms, a spa bathroom welcomes moments of relaxation which extend to the outdoors, where the sense of respite continues. Surrounded by established cottage gardens enjoy your morning brew under the front verandah, take time for afternoon refreshments in the sunshine, and utilise the large shelter of the carport to dine alfresco in premium comfort. A neutral colour pallet and simplicity allow you to add your individual style, whilst a split system air conditioner and full-size laundry add convenience to daily life. A short walk from your door, Daylesford's main street serves up an irresistible array of cafe and dining options from every corner of the globe, and boutique shops are sure to delight. Daylesford Lakes' beautiful vistas and peaceful walks are a short stroll away, and there is no shortage of walks amongst the natural springs, encouraging peak wellness and a lifestyle soaked in natural serenity.
