Nestled within the heart of Laurieton at 2/20 Tunis Street, this charming two-bedroom townhouse presents an outstanding opportunity for investors, downsizers, or retirees seeking a blend of comfort and convenience. With only three residences in the complex, this delightful abode offers a sense of exclusivity and community. The property spans two levels, featuring the bedrooms on the upper floor, both of which boast built-in robes and ceiling fans for those warm summer nights. The master bedroom is further enhanced with air conditioning and a private deck, perfect for morning coffees whilst enjoying the aspect towards the Camden Haven River. The lower level of the townhouse hosts the living and kitchen facilities, designed for an easy and comfortable lifestyle. A second toilet on the ground floor adds a layer of practicality, particularly for guests. With the main street and a Coles just a mere 200 metres away, daily errands and shopping become a stroll rather than a chore. This residence ticks all the boxes for those looking to downsize without compromising on living quality. It offers a rare combination of low-maintenance living, with the luxury of a river glimpse and the convenience of proximity to local amenities. The property also includes one parking space, which complements the low-maintenance appeal of this townhouse. With such features and an enviable location, 2/20 Tunis Street stands as a prime investment or a peaceful haven for those looking to embrace a quieter pace of life in beautiful Laurieton, NSW.
