Positioned at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac near Swinburne University and in a super central location only a heartbeat from amenities including Auburn village and Auburn train station, this understated and rare ground floor offering showcases a restful leafy outlook in a much sought after locale. A surprising amount of free-flowing space and light come by way a private front and rear courtyard. Generously proportioned open plan living/dining opening via glass doors to both courtyards. A compact yet functional kitchen, updated bathroom and separate WC complete the home. With an undercover carport on title and plenty of scope for further improvement this apartment will suit a range of buyers and investors who recognise truly exceptional opportunities.
