Successfully marketed and Sold by Mark Kainey Property - Stunningly north-facing and one of only three on the generous block, this quiet and inviting two-bedroom, 1.5-bathroom villa unit will speak the language of many. This home is well-appointed for downsizers, first-time buyers and investors, with many internal living highlights you won't soon forget. Modern striking floors are a feature of the spacious and free-flowing living and meals zone, which gives you versatility and size that is so coveted. Overlook this living area from the stylish and immaculate kitchen, which impresses with a quaint breakfast bar, great bench space, and stainless steel appliances including a 4-burner gas cooktop. Both bedrooms have access to built-in robe storage, with the main bedroom accessing the dual entry bathroom with a sleek edge and ensuite effect. Don't forget the laundry, separate toilet, ducted heating through the ceiling, reverse cycle cooling, ceiling fans, private back courtyard and garden, shed, single garage with workshop, and additional off-street car space. This home also offers an appealing north-facing front. You're near Boronia Junction with supermarkets and Kmart, the beautiful Dandenong Ranges National Park, Chandler Park, Batterham Park, Boronia K-12 College, buses, and Boronia Station.
