Delivering suburban serenity and contemporary style in vibrant inner-city surrounds, this single-level villa unit offers a bright and airy setting with leafy indoor-outdoor appeal. Nestled back from the road in a private complex of five homes, this beautiful garden sanctuary offers exceptional space, modern comfort, and effortless convenience. Showered in natural light through a bright bay window, the vast living domain affords space to gather family and friends for relaxation and dining over gleaming hardwood floors. The separate fully appointed kitchen adjoins a casual family room where a wall of windows wraps over the ceiling to maximise natural light. Flowing out to the gardens, this room becomes the ultimate indoor-outdoor entertainer, providing two private patios for alfresco dining and relaxation among the towering tropical gardens. Both bedrooms are generously sized to rest at days' end, including custom-fitted robes to the main bedroom, and serviced by a sparkling central bathroom with a European laundry and a separate WC. Finished by a remote-controlled garage with storage cupboards, the home is ideally placed for a leisurely lifestyle. Surrounded by Melbourne's best schools, the home is situated within paces of the shopping, eatery, and public transport hubs of Glenferrie Road and Auburn Village, while positioned minutes from the Yarra River's parklands, Melbourne's bustling CBD, and the Eastern freeway.
