Spacious Street Front in Lush Surrounds

Desirable with its own driveway and street front appeal, this generous two bedroom classic brick villa is big on space and low on maintenance. Set back from the street in lovely gardens, this private haven has been given an on-trend colour palette, enjoying welcoming entry hall, stylish living and dining area, modern spacious kitchen with stainless steel stove, two good size bedrooms with built in robes, pristine bathroom with separate toilet and large laundry. There are separate alfresco areas including a sunlit mod grass area with landscaped borders, and an outdoor dining area perfect for the barbecue in the west-facing rear courtyard. An ideal family starter or smart investment, this immaculate residence is fitted with original polished floorboards, reverse cycle air conditioning, double blinds, ample storage, garage and driveway parking. Located in the Hughesdale Primary School & South Oakleigh College zones with the Temperance Society café on Kangaroo Road, walk to Argyle Reserve, handy shops and the Chadstone bus, moments to Poath Road cafes, train and Oakleigh Central.
