This immaculate 3-bedroom 2 story townhouse presents itself as the ideal property for the modern family. Perfectly situated just minutes from the town center, 2/374 Barnard Street has instant access to everything Bendigo has to offer. For the medical professionals this property is ideally positioned 200 Meters from St John of God Hospital and 4 Minutes from Bendigo Health so you can have the convenience of having a home office within walking distance from work. For the young professionals looking to get into the market this home is the perfect combination of household comforts and accessibility to all amenities Bendigo has to offer. The property is located just 3 minutes away from the arts and museum precincts, sporting facilities such as the QEO and Tom Floods Sport Centre with the convenience of being walking distance from Bendigo inner city primary and secondary schools. Boasting 3 large bedrooms and ensuite, 2 large living areas, balcony views, Zen Garden with water feature, 2 car lock up garage, split system heating and cooling in all rooms, tiled flooring and a 6 seat jacuzzi, entertainers will also love the open kitchen, cinema room and surround sound speakers in all rooms. This property honestly has everything a family needs. A fully grown and maintained hedge surrounding the property ensures your privacy and the installed security system will have you feeling safe at all hours. This is one not to be missed, to arrange an inspection or for any further enquiries, please call Brad on 0427 703 393 or Conor Hosking on 0412 810 741
