Just one block back from the beach, this Indented Head home exudes holiday vibes and epitomises fuss-free, relaxed seaside living. This reverse-living two-storey home comprises four bedrooms, two living zones, a carport and water glimpses. Located within a two-minute walk to the beach, it's low-key coastal living at its best! The main living space upstairs is generously proportioned and offers westerly and northerly outlooks with balconies on both sides. The relaxed, open-plan layout with a galley-style kitchen, family meals area and comfortable lounge is practical and welcoming. The main bedroom suite is also upstairs, with built-in robes, ensuite and wraparound balcony. Downstairs, a second living area is a perfect kids chill-out zone, surrounded by the remaining three bedrooms with built-in robes, the family bathroom and laundry. Outside, a covered carport leads to a flexible concrete patio area that doubles as secure boat or caravan storage, and a neat garden with a veggie bed and productive fruit trees welcomes you towards a cosy fire pit area – perfect for entertaining guests on a warm summer's eve. Surrounded by fantastic walking tracks including the Esplanade Trail, which hugs the coastline and links St Leonards to Portarlington, and with arguably the best and quietest beach in the region at your doorstep, you'll love your new coastal lifestyle in Indented Head.
