Fantastic entry level home in the rapidly growing suburb of Sorell. With three bedrooms and secure garaging, this soundly constructed property provides a rare and desirable configuration for a villa home. Further comprising open plan living incorporating lounge, dining and a well appointed kitchen, bathroom and loo, separate laundry and a fully fenced alfresco space, this property ticks a lot of boxes. A Daikin reverse cycle air conditioning system provides year round comfort. Brick veneer helps keep maintenance to a minimum. The Northerly aspect ensures good light and ambient warmth, a highly sought design feature in Tasmanian Real Estate. Being one of only three on the allotment and with a private garden, the sense of space is evident. In close proximity to schools, medical facilities, transport and services, within the thriving Sorell satellite city, the location is highly sought. First open home this Saturday, 30th September.
