This well-presented low maintenance brick unit and easy to maintain garden is sure to be popular! Featuring two good size bedrooms with built in robes, a main bathroom with separate shower and bath, large laundry and separate toilet. An open plan kitchen with electric appliances has lots of storage space and leads into the dining and living areas. Under floor heating, ceiling fans and split system air conditioning take care of all your heating and cooling needs. There is also a single garage with remote door and internal access to the home, great for security and convenience. The property is within walking distance of Terang's shopping precinct, schools, sporting facilities, health services, schools and childcare. Terang's railway station is only a short stroll away allowing for stress free travelling to Warrnambool, Camperdown and Geelong. Ideal for retirees, downsizers and investors.
