Stunning sweeping views from the wrap around deck, overlooking the valley along Frenches Creek across to the mountains in the distance. Light, breezy and open living - What better way to start & finish every day !! This high set, three bedroom and two bathroom home is situated on 40 acres of pristine natural bush-land only minutes on sealed roads from Boonah township. Close to schools, shops, transport and the day to day amenities of life, but far enough away from the day to day stresses. This home includes 3 Phase power, phone, NBN internet and all of the comforts necessary to make your "green change" easy and relaxed. Underneath the home is additional space, or workshop for those weekend hobbies or possible extension of the home. What a great family home, weekender or bed and breakfast this property would make. The property is currently tenanted to October, continue to rent it out and move in later when you want to enjoy a more peaceful life.
