Conveniently located in the heart of Camperdown this sleek modern townhouse can comfortably accommodate the whole family. If you're looking for a low-maintenance home with all the conveniences Camperdown offers at your doorstep then this is it. Part of a small and welcoming complex with the north-facing aspect capturing plenty of natural light the property will appeal to the carefree or busy buyer who wants to lock up and leave at any time knowing their property will be safe and secure. Comprising three generously sized bedrooms and two bathrooms, a family-friendly kitchen opens to a light bright living dining area, with the bonus of transitioning your indoor living outdoors, thanks to a generous size balcony, a great place to nurture your own green space. Rounding out the package is secure vehicle parking and/or storage thanks to your own lockable garage. For sale by Auction Sat 13th July, enquire today to find out more and arrange your inspection.
