Peacefully positioned within a tranquil street, this solid two-bedroom residence enjoys an admirable location, offering instant connection to local amenities, as well as providing comfortable indoor and outdoor living options. Quietly positioned back from the road, beyond the brick-veneer exterior, the homely atmosphere begins in the living area, boasting large windows to attract natural sunlight, as well as providing a delightful outlook to the park-like communal garden. The neutral colour scheme creates a crisp yet warm setting for socialising while split system heating and cooling offers all-year-round comfort. Extending off this spacious living room is a convenient meals area serviced by a fully-equipped kitchen featuring an upright electric cooker, dishwasher, timeless white cabinetry and tiled splashback. Stepping outdoors, an enviable paved entertaining zone affords a relaxing space to unwind with a coffee at the end of the day. Adding further appeal, the home accommodates two generously-proportioned bedrooms, privately zoned away from the living area. The carpeted master is fitted with built-in robes, as well as being conveniently located only steps from the combined bathroom and Euro laundry which incorporates a shower over bath, vanity and adjoining toilet. The second bedroom also features built-in robes and is positioned close to the bathroom. The residence also brings together exceptional benefits, including; floating floors, linen cupboard, solar power and single carport. This dwelling is conveniently situated just a brief walk from Ringwood East Railway Station, Ringwood East Village, Ringwood Lake Park, Ringwood Private Hospital, Ringwood Secondary College, as well as being in close distance to Eastland Shopping Centre, Eastwood Primary School, Tintern Grammar, Aquinas College, EastLink freeway and Aquanation. Designed on a single-level layout, this unique home offers a quiet, relaxed and comfortable lifestyle.
