North facing townhouse with private, wraparound garden in Boutique Block of only 4. Positioned to the rear of a boutique complex of four, this three-bedroom townhouse (211sqm on title) offers an opportunity for families to buy an abundance of space without the price tag of a house. It is quietly positioned on the border of Randwick and Kingsford and is only moments to every convenience. Complete with a private entrance, it opens to reveal semi-sized proportions and a space that many would be envious to call home. It offers wonderful flow between indoor and outdoor living. This home captures a wash of natural light and green outlooks through almost every window. It is ideally located close to Prince of Wales Hospital, UNSW, the light rail network, the upmarket Newmarket dining precinct, Randwick village shops and restaurants, local parks and Rainbow Street Public School.

- Light-filled living space with seamless connection to the outdoors
- Unique expansive wraparound garden bathed in northern sunshine
- Newly renovated gas kitchen with stone benchtops, Bosch appliances & Herringbone tiles.
- Three private bedrooms, all up upstairs with built-in robes & main with ensuite
- New laundry, powder room, neutral bathrooms with recent upgrades
- Internal access to underground parking space plus storage cage
- Air-conditioning, new timber flooring, only one minor common wall
- Townhouse is at the rear of the property in a private and quiet building
- Short walk to the vibrant Newmarket village dining precinct and light rail
