Entertain on your private garden courtyard and delight in the streamlined modern interiors of this two bedroom ground floor apartment situated a short walk to All Nations Park. Set in a low-rise mid-century block with secure entry via a terrazzo lined hall and private entry via your own driveway offering off-street parking for two, this unique offering presents starters and investors stylish entry to lifestyle hotspot. Extensive glazing in open plan living takes in views over the courtyard while a glossy white kitchen featuring excellent storage, stone counters and a full suite of appliances will appeal to keen cooks. Generously proportioned accommodation comes via two carpeted bedrooms with robes that share a stylish central bathroom with chrome trims that incorporates laundry facilities. Freshly painted with engineered flooring and split system air-conditioning this streamlined property is set a short walk to Northcote Plaza, transport, NARC and High Street's fabulous range of cafes, restaurants and boutique shopping.
