Welcome to your ideal retreat located in the heart of nature! A range of features make this property a dream destination for those seeking a peaceful and well-equipped space for both relaxation and recreational activities. This property features brand new external fences that are 4 barbed with galvanised posts. The entrances have added some rustic charm to your retreat with ironbark strainers and mesh gates. Three phase power sits on the boundary of this property to equip you with power whether it is for a temporary stay or as part of a more permanent setup. The property offers recently cleared house sites, providing you with the flexibility to build your dream home or set up a comfortable campsite. The cleared spaces showcase the potential for development while maintaining the natural charm of the surroundings. There are also concrete pads making it very easy to just pull up the caravan. The property has also got a brand-new dam. The Proston Weir is ideally located right on your future doorstep. The Weir is just a few minutes' walk down for all your recreational requirements such as swimming, fishing, bird watching or exploring nature. If the Weir isn't enough Boondooma Dam is only a 30min drive for a larger scheme of fishing and boating. In summary, this property could be your next retreat in the midst of serene landscapes, recreational opportunities and no neighbours. Whether you picture a permanent residence or a weekend getaway, this property invites you to experience the best of both worlds.
