Modern Comfort in Dingley Village Presenting a haven of comfort, seclusion, and convenience, this exceptional property occupies a prime location in the heart of Dingley Village. Seamlessly blending modern appeal with practicality, this charming abode is perfect for first-time buyers, small families, and those seeking to downsize without compromising on quality. Step inside to discover a warm space adorned with sleek laminate flooring and flooded with natural light streaming in through the expansive windows. Venture further to find a classic kitchen and dining space that boasts abundant storage, quality appliances and a serene view of the tranquil courtyard. Tucked away in the rear wing, two generously sized bedrooms await; one bedroom features a built-in wardrobe and split system that shares access to the updated bathroom boasting a sleek vanity, skylight, and separate toilet. The second bedroom offers the added convenience of a walk-in robe. Outside, the private courtyard beckons for entertaining and leisure, surrounded by mature gardens that enhance the ambience with a sense of space, scope, and privacy. Completing this delightful package are the inclusions of a full laundry, split-system heating and cooling, a security system, a remote garage, and additional off-street parking. Ideally suited for a wide range of families, this residence is conveniently located near esteemed local schools such as St Mark's Primary, Haileybury, and Lighthouse Colleges. A short stroll will lead you to scenic parks, recreational facilities, and vibrant shopping precincts like Keysborough HomeCo. For more extensive retail and dining options, DFO, Thrift Park, and Parkmore Shopping Centre are just a short drive away, ensuring every need is catered to with ease and style.
