Its spaces are single level, its style reaches outstanding heights of refinement - this impressive, inviting modern unit represents an exceptional opportunity in a quiet yet convenient cul-de-sac setting. Living and dining areas featuring timber floors and sliding glass doors to decked entertaining dimensions are complemented by the open-plan kitchen's striking combination of stone benches and timber cabinetry. A main bedroom of alluring size is served by a walk-in robe and superb fully-tiled ensuite while an equally memorable marble bathroom is shared by two further bathrooms, each enjoying a zone of its own. Heating/cooling, bright light, substantial low-maintenance outdoor surroundings, a secure garage and ample extra car parking accompany a property that provides investors, downsizers and first home buyers with all the right responses. Coburg Hill Shopping Centre, Claremont Street Playground and Newlands Primary School are all merely moments away.
