Boasting its own street frontage at the top of an attractive modern set of townhouses this immaculate and comfortable unit will no doubt catch the eye of first home buyers and investors alike. Cleverly set just behind the Thomastown Shopping Precinct with the simplest of access to the Thomastown Train Station approx. 300m away and the Recreation Reserve at the opposite end of the street, this location is unrivalled and will spoil you for convenience! This charming one-bedroom Unit boasts a well-designed floor plan that feels homely and bright while being little to no maintenance. Follow the entrance through to the main living space which features a modern kitchen, dining space and spacious lounge filled with natural light. Complete with s/s appliances, extra pantry and split system heating and cooling. The spacious ground floor bedroom features built-in robes and is serviced by the separate contemporary main bathroom and offers a separate laundry with additional storage space throughout. Added extras also include single garaged car space. Do not miss this divine opportunity to take in all that Thomastown has to offer with every amenity at your doorstep and experience lifestyle and convenience at its best!
