This charismatic family home naturally articulates the heart and soul of relaxation all whilst bursting with charm. This home showcases an inspiring and unique design, featuring beautiful timber floorboards and high raked ceilings with exposed beams throughout the open plan kitchen and living areas. Set on a 4000m² corner block of land with elevated views to the North, this property has everything a family could want; from the generous sized home to the 2 powered sheds - great for Dad to work on the old school cars or store the toys, as well as 1 to accommodate the everyday cars. The striking timber staircase graces the heart of the home and is adorned with large cathedral arched windows providing natural light, adding to the character and creating a sense of grandeur to the space. The master bedroom offers a peaceful retreat with ensuite and spa bath, walk-in robe, and a private deck, where you can unwind and soak in the tranquil environment. The kitchen, adorned with modern amenities and appliances including an island bench, 2 pantries, dishwasher and ILVE stand-alone oven with a 5-burner induction cook top provides a comfortable and practical space. The main living room features a wood heater, creating an inviting ambiance, especially during the colder months. Make the most of the summer months with bi-fold doors opening to the back deck seamlessly blurring the boundaries between the indoor and outdoor spaces, inviting the natural world to become an integral part of daily life. Indulge in the tranquil outdoor lifestyle on the entertainment deck enjoying alfresco meals, or simply take a walk through the landscaped low maintenance gardens.
