Nestled in 'The Herald' complex, in the heart of the city, this apartment is all about top quality, flooded with natural light, and super convenient. Step into the open plan living and dining area, where the kitchen steals the show with its sense of space, sleek stone surfaces and Blanco appliances. You'll love kicking back on the elevated balcony, taking in the view of the street trees below. Both bedrooms are spacious, bright, and come with plenty of robe space. Plus, you've got two fully tiled bathrooms including a main with bathtub to indulge in. Ducted air conditioning keeps things cool throughout. And parking? Covered in the secure basement, along with not one, but two storage cages. Forget waiting for the elevator, this ground floor gem allows you to step outside and dive into the vibrant city life. You've got everything within arm's reach: shops, cafes, restaurants, beaches, parks, universities, trams, and of course, famous Newcastle harbour. And don't miss out on the stunning views from the communal rooftop terrace. Whether you're craving an inner-city retreat or eyeing a savvy investment opportunity, this place has you covered. It's a win-win!
