Exclusive Westgarth retreat: Architect-Designed luxury with urban convenience Step into a world of elevated luxury with this architect-designed boutique apartment in Westgarth, masterfully set back from the street to offer an exclusive retreat. This unique property combines high-end finishes and bespoke design to create a serene living experience that redefines modern elegance. Abundantly light, the impressive interior with lofty ceilings and engineered timber floors features two large bedrooms, the main with a luxurious ensuite and both with built in robes, plus there is a central bathroom. Toward the back, the space unfolds into an entertainer's dream with a kitchen, dining and living area, all seamlessly connected. Floor-to-ceiling glass doors open up to a generous, full-width terrace, inviting the outside in and creating the perfect backdrop for elegant gatherings. The impressive kitchen includes ample storage and bench space, freestanding island bench, stone benchtops, quality appliances including an Ilve stove 900mm gas stove top and a fully integrated Bosch dishwasher. Added features include excellent storage, European laundry, split system heating and cooling, single glazing, video intercom entry, and secure undercover parking. In a dream location with trams, restaurants, cafes, shops, and the iconic Westgarth Cinema just steps away. A short stroll will also take you to Westgarth Station or Merri Station and the scenic Merri Creek trails, making it the perfect spot for both urban adventurers and nature enthusiasts alike.
