This wonderful unique home is located in a private setting on just under one acre, within a short stroll to the town centre of Koroit. With multiple living options, including three bedrooms and an option for a fourth, you can alter to suit your own lifestyle. A recent renovation has added an extra bathroom, living area and bedroom. There is a triple garage with one bay converted into a games room, but easily converted back. A well appointed kitchen with dual oven Falcon stove, a silent ducted Rangehood and a walk-in pantry. There are beautiful views from the rear of the property, across paddocks to the Rail Trail. Your own veggie patch and orchard will have you producing your own food in no time. There is an outdoor open fireplace in the courtyard to keep you warm while entertaining and literally too much more to mention. Worthy of an inspection, enquire today to secure your tomorrow.
