Nestled in this established neighbourhood with a picturesque parkland outlook, this charming property offers a classic design in a convenient location. Family life will be a delight in the expansive open-plan living, dining and kitchen that features an island bench that all opens to an undercover alfresco area, perfect for outdoor gatherings. The master bedroom feature his and her robes that flow through to the en-suite with large shower. The second bathroom with bath and a separate toilet are conveniently located for easy access to the additional bedrooms which include built-in-robes. Stay cosy during the cooler months with the convenience of ducted heating throughout and enjoy the security of the remote lockup garage plus an additional off-street parking space. Separate laundry opening to a private courtyard, roller shutters, large sunny rear yard for the kids with close proximity to shops, schools and beautiful river walks add to the allure of this spacious home.
