The ideal solution to the first home buyer search, or the answer to the perfect investment question, this bright single level unit in a boutique setting, is a winner either way. Natural light fills generous living/dining areas which are matched for modern quality and impressive presentation by a similarly spacious kitchen with stainless steel appliances. Two generous sized bedrooms, each with built-in robes, share a stylish central bathroom while split system heating/cooling, solar panels, low maintenance gardens and a single carport with remote roller door access add a convenient additional element only moments from Central Square shopping centre, public transport, local schools, open parkland, easy freeway access to the C.B.D and only a short drive away from Altona foreshore. Lifestyle at your doorstep!!!
