A stylish sanctuary of easy-living excellence In an exclusive boutique block of just three residences, this expansive townhouse redefines modern urban living. Welcome to a home where space, flexibility, and style converge seamlessly. Step inside, and you'll immediately appreciate the generous proportions of the open living, kitchen, and dining area. The kitchen itself features a breakfast bar, premium appliances including a gas stovetop, and an abundance of storage. Natural light floods the living space through north-facing windows, which offer serene views of your private courtyard and leafy surrounds. This exceptional property doesn't stop there. Upstairs offers a master bedroom complete with a sleek built-in robe, a central bathroom as well as a versatile study/landing area adding to the overall functionality of this residence. Additional features of this home include split system heating and cooling for year-round comfort, a convenient guest WC, electronic underfloor heating, a separate laundry with ample storage space, and your very own designated parking space. The location is nothing short of exceptional, offering effortless access to multiple transportation options. You'll find Northcote Plaza, the Northcote Aquatic Centre, and the serene Darebin Creek just moments away. And when it's time for dining and entertainment, High Street's renowned restaurants and cafes are right at your doorstep.
